

Ancient Egypt

The Egyptian Cinderella

Shirley Climo & Ruth Heller
Picture book

The Egyptian Cinderella takes the familiar story of Cinderella and transports it into the context of Ancient Egypt. Rhodipis is an orphaned slave girl from Greece, whose red slipper ends up in the hands of the Prince of Egypt. Follow her story as the Pharaoh searches for Rhodipis and makes her the Egyptian Queen. There is also an accompanying KS2History planning unit available.

The Egyptians

Jonny Marx & Chaaya Prabhat
Information book

A novelty information book digging deeper into the topic of Ancient Egypt. With flaps to lift on every page and vibrant illustrations of Egyptian scenes, there's plenty to keep little hands busy and curious minds at work, as topics include mummification, pharaohs, culture and mythology.

Secrets of a Sun King

Emma Carroll
Chapter book

This story is set in 1922 around the time that Howard Carter famously excavated Tutankhamun's tomb. Thirteen-year-old Lilian Kaye enjoys following the newspaper reports about Howard Carter's progress. A mystery parcel raises lots of questions and soon after Lilian has an opportunity to join a voyage to Egypt. What follows is an exciting adventure that will take Lilian to the very heart of Howard Carter's fascinating discoveries. Filled with historical intrigue and intelligently drawn characters, this is highly recommended for upper Ks2.

Marcy and the Riddle of the Sphinx

Joe Todd Stanton
Graphic novel style picture book

This highly appealing text is a hybrid between picture book and graphic novel. It follows the story of young Marcy, who finds herself on a mission to save her father after he becomes trapped inside an Ancient Egyptian Sphinx. On her journey Marcy must learn to overcome her fears and challenge evil as she encounters hieroglyphs, Egyptian gods and ancient tombs as she goes about her quest. A gentle introduction to Ancient Egyptian mythology in the form of an exciting quest narrative.

Ancient Egypt: Tales of Gods and Pharaohs

Marcia Williams

Comic-style information book

Get to grips with nine intriguing key people from Ancient Egypt as Marcia Williams returns with her distinctive comic-book style to present exciting tales of gods, goddesses and pharaohs. These stories have plenty of humour and a great visual appeal, proving particularly popular for engaging reluctant readers. Subjects include Cleopatra, Tutankhamen, Ra and Isis.

Meet the Ancient Egyptians

James Davies

Information book

A picture-book style non-fiction text about the Ancient Egyptian people. Each page has a short chunk of text accompanied by simple, bold illustrations or infographics. Humorous and stylish without compromising on factual content, this book is a popular choice with reluctant or younger readers.

Pharaoh's Fate

Camille Gautier & Stéphanie Vernet

'Solve the mystery' style information book

This is a visually appealing and beautifully illustrated non-fiction text that explores life in Ancient Egypt. Someone is plotting to murder the pharaoh and this book walks the reader step by step through Egyptian life to investigate the clues and solve the mystery. This is the kind of non-fiction text that children want to look at again and again and is brimming with visual details about life in Ancient Egyptian times.

A Mummy Ate My Homework

Thiago de Moraes

Illustrated chapter book

A heavily illustrated chapter book full of interesting and unusual facts about Ancient Egypt woven into a funny, action-packed time travel adventure. The book includes an engaging mix of visual features, including comic strips, maps and full page spreads and also has bonus activities at the end include hieroglyphic codes to crack - a winning combination for reluctant readers and those who enjoy fact-finding in a story.

The Red Pyramid

Rick Riordan
Chapter book

Fans of Percy Jackson will enjoy this edge-of-your seat Egyptian adventure from the same author. This fast-paced narrative follows the story of two siblings who find themselves thrown into an action-packed adventure where the world of Ancient Egypt meets modern life, complete with gods, pharaohs and ancient magic. This is a good choice for upper KS2, full of mystery and a sure winner for fans of action and adventure.

Egyptology: Search for the Tomb of Osiris

Dugald Steer
Illustrated information text

This is a beautiful and unusual hands-on text that will engage and enchant pupils and teachers alike. Egyptology recounts the lost expedition of Emily Sands in her 1926 scrapbook journal. Through flaps, envelopes and interactive extras, readers will encounter jewels, mummy cloth, hieroglyphs and a working board game. Egyptology brings art, literacy and history together in a stunning and imaginative way. This book is a real gem and certainly one with the wow factor.

Egypt Magnified

David Long & Harry Bloom
Information book

A treasure trove of information about Ancient Egypt presented in a seek-and-find format, with a magnifying glass included (because "every Egyptologist needs a magnifying glass"). This fun and interactive book includes 16 scenes depicting daily life for the Ancient Egyptians, each with hundreds of miniature cartoon-style figures going about their daily activities. Readers familiar with the Where's Wally? books will dive right in without hesitation as they search for different characters, animals, symbols and objects that all build up to create a detailed picture of different aspects of life in Ancient Egypt.

So You Think You've Got It Bad: A Kid's Life in Ancient Egypt

Chae Strathie & Marisa Morea
Information book

Published in collaboration with The British Museum, this children's information book offers a humorous and informative introduction to daily life in Ancient Egypt and has a high appeal to readers in KS2. The book compares modern-day life for children to different aspects of daily life for the Ancient Egyptians, including clothes and hairstyles, education, family life, pets, food and hobbies. An enjoyable information text that would appeal to children in KS2, this is the kind of book that helps young readers to move beyond hard facts and begin to reflect on what life might have felt like for those living in ancient times.

An Egyptian Adventure (The Histronauts)

Frances Durkin & Grace Cooke
Graphic novel / activity book

Telling a story that continues to fascinate young and old readers alike, this powerfully visual book tells the story of the boy Pharaoh, Tutankhamun. The book explores the story and legacy of Tutankhamun as well as Howard Carter's ground-breaking discovery of the tomb and the treasures within. The pages are mostly set in eye-catching yellows and blues, evoking the dry heat of the desert set against the powerful Nile.

Flat Stanley: The Great Egyptian Grave Robbery

Sara Pennypacker & Jon Mitchell
Illustrated chapter book

Flat Stanley: The Great Egyptian Grave Robbery is a good choice of text for a younger class or for less confident readers. In this quick-paced adventure, the well-loved flat main character Stanley is airmailed to Egypt to search the great pyramids for ancient treasure at the request of an archaeologist. Adventure awaits as Stanley finds himself in a new fix, this time involving underground tomb, ancient treasure and impressive pyramids.

The Legend of Tutankhamun

Sally Jane Morgan & James Weston Lewis
Information book

Telling a story that continues to fascinate young and old readers alike, this powerfully visual book tells the story of the boy Pharaoh, Tutankhamun. The book explores the story and legacy of Tutankhamun as well as Howard Carter's ground-breaking discovery of the tomb and the treasures within. The pages are mostly set in eye-catching yellows and blues, evoking the dry heat of the desert set against the powerful Nile.